

RIGHT PERSON, RIGHT TIME

Most hiring managers aren't looking for a staffing firm. They are looking for a specific person, right now, who can hit the ground running. At MBI, that's exactly what we do. We present fully vetted, W-2 IT professionals within 48 hours of your requisition -- not resumes to sift through, but people we have already qualified for your team's skills and culture. Powered by Excellence for over 24 years, MBI has become a thought leader in business consulting. In our staffing practice, we apply these same skills to first understand the business goals and culture of our client before we recommend a candidate.

Our "intelligent placement" approach leads to far greater candidate placement and project completion success than simply offering stacks of resumes and hoping you will find a fit. Our ongoing engagement with our clients and candidates leads to long-term project success.

We call this the 'MBI Advantage.'
